Navy Psychologist Calls Story About Assassins 'False, Absurd'

LONDON, July 18 (UPI)-A | sions with reporter Peter' Wat-U.S. Navy psychologist denied son I briefly discussed theoret-today as "blatantly flase and absurd" a London newspaper absurd" a London newspaper report that he told an international conferece that the Narut rele navy trains enlisted men and ment shortly after his arrival denied the report. (The Washington Post carried a wired pital in Naples, Italy. service report of the story yesterday.)

"with amaze- is false." Peter Watson have been assigned to embassies as assassins os totally and logical or any other type of blatantly false and absurd," he said. "In my informal discus- sins."

Narut released the statemilitary convicts as assassins in London to report to Rear and assigns them to duty in foreign countries.

In London to report to Rear Adm. Donald Enger, deputy commander of U.S. Naval In Washington, a Navy Forces in Europe. Narut was spokesman also categorically summoned to London from his station at the U.S. Naval Hos-

"In brief I know of No U.S. Navy program, or any U.S. Lt. Cmdr. Thomas Narut said in a statement that he had read a published account of his conversation with London Sunday Times reporter "and any other interpretation" ment and disbelief."

A Navy spokesman in Washington said, "the Navy categorme that convicted murderers ically denies that it is, or ever